THE MAN

ABOUT

TOWN -BY-Harry Tucker.

The following letter, which we have just received, explains itself: "Dear Sir,—In order to decide a bot, will you please tell me when you sleep, when you find time to write for the paper, and if you really are married and have six boys?"

That is, it ought to explain itself, but it doesn't, and we will.

We have some sporting blood ourselves,

it doesn't, and we will.
We have some sporting blood ourselves,
and we can appreciate the position of a man who is anxious to have his bet disposed of. We will endeavor to answer the

1. We do not sleep.
2. We are always writing for the pa er, but very little of it gets in.
3 We ask our friend to come up to dinner some Fourth of July and count them for himself.

We have been called a "caicif." and we ask some of our readers to please tell us what a caitiff is.

Until we know we are not in a position to say anything, for we cannot tell whether we are being complimented or lambasted.

We have been called a caltiff by a fellow whom we have revered and loved for forty years, and we cannot feel that he means anything mean.

So we will hold ourself in until somebody tells us what a caltiff is.

for things of the past, let's talk about foot-ball.

There's going to be the biggest kind of a game here Saturday at Broad-Street Park between the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and the University, and we are spending many hours trying to find out what a snap-back is when we see it, and when a player is knocked out how much time its taken out.

We have understood that the timekeeper is an important official, and must be entirely imparital.

He can extend or curtail time at his pleasure, they say, according to the circumstances.

Anyhow, it's great to go out to a football game and mix up in the grandstand rush.

We were talking with Mr. Henry Lerch the other day about a case of blue ribbons that he is going to send out to the ccuntry, when he presented us a fragrant Hessie Abbott cigar.

Of course, we are accustomed to good cigars all the time, but we must say that we nursed that one for a long time, and we only hope that Mr. Levy will make some just as good when he puts out the brand he has named for us.
